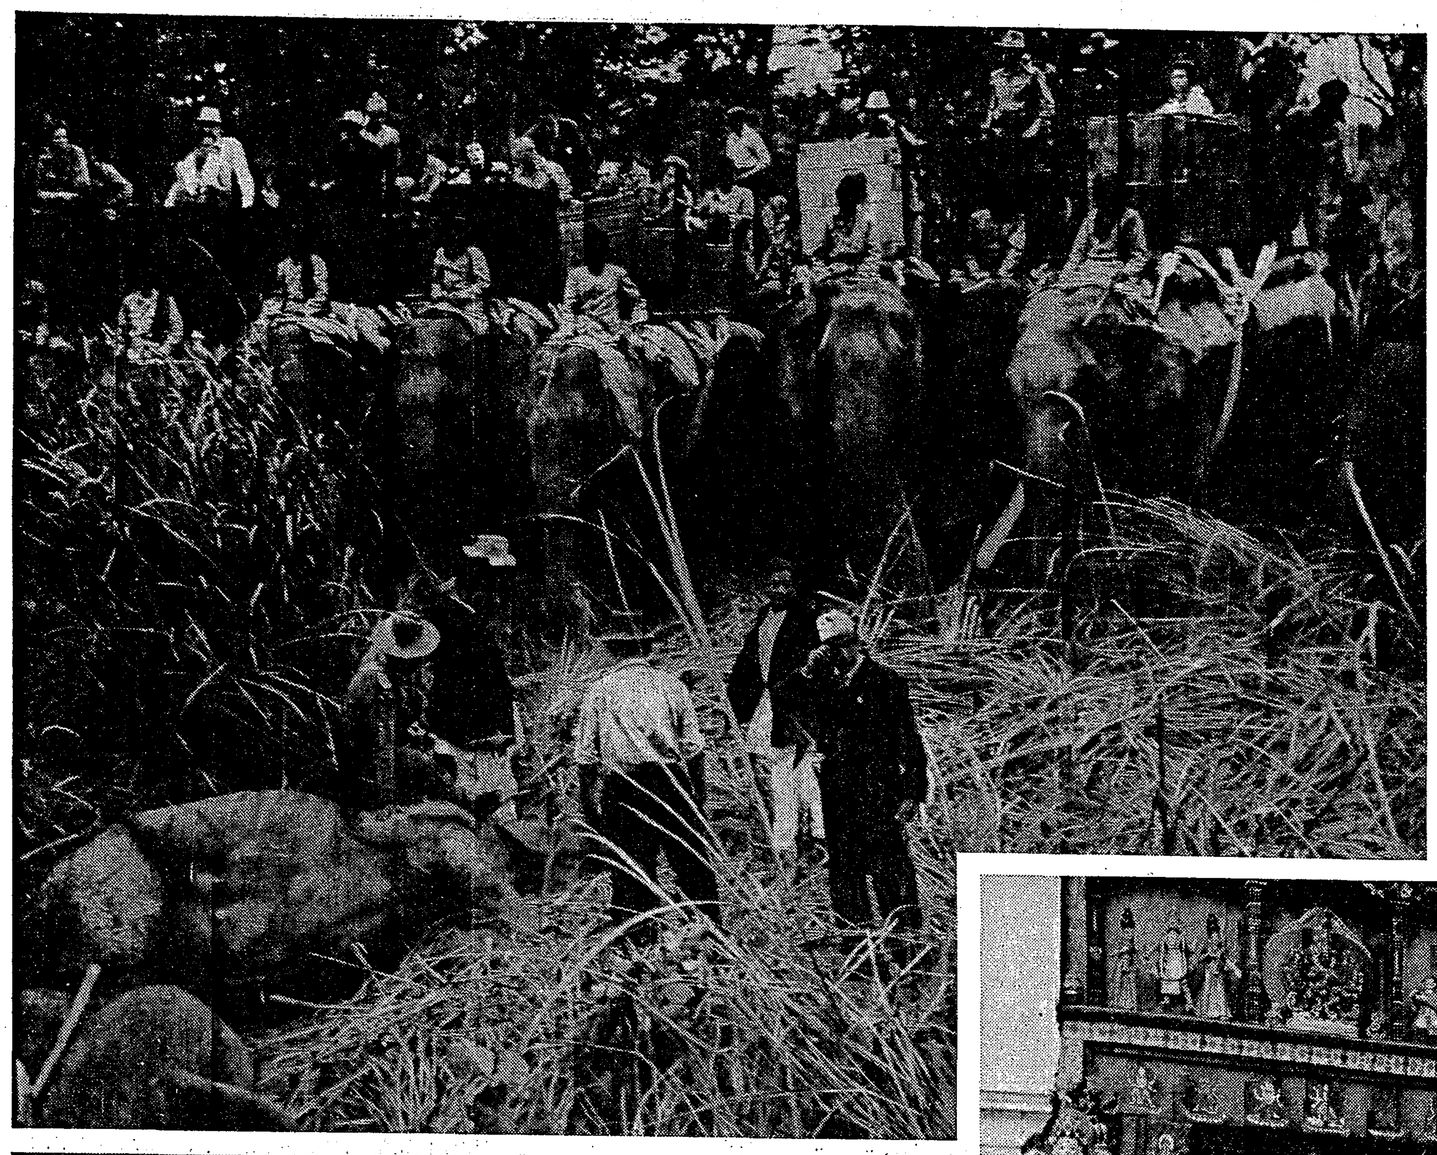
THE QUEEN AT A RHINOCEROS HUNT



The Queen using her cine camera during the hunt picnic.

The Queen watching from a howdah elephant on the right, after a rhinoceros had been shot during the hunting in Nepal.
The animal was killed either by Lord Home or Sir Michael Adeane, the Queen's private secretary. They fired together. The Foreign Secretary is on the third elephant from the Queen's right.

REDUCE UNITED KINGDOM ESTATE DUTY
By Buying Nassau (Bahamas) Leasehold Property

Land Abroad (including Leasehold Flats) purchased by persons in Great Britain is normally immovable property and so exempt from United Kingdom Estate Duty.

We have available in Nassau, Bahamas, new Flats to let on 99-year leases for considerations varying between £7,800 and £16,000. Such flats, if let on short or long tenancies by United Kingdom Purchasers, will, we estimate, return a net 6 per cent. We would be prepared to guarantee this return for two years.

The following are some examples of the rate of United Kingdom Estate Duty: on an Estate of £25,000 the rate is 15%; on one of £35,000 it is 21%; on £50,000 it is 31%; £75,000 it is 40%; £100,000 it is 45%; £200,000 it is 55%; on £500,000 it is 65%, rising to 80% on estates of over £1,000,000.

To allow persons acquiring one or more flats an opportunity of seeing their investment, we will undertake to pay all reasonable expenses for a purchaser or his representative to visit Nassau.

Estate Agents' Enquiries Welcomed.
We will supply Bank References to show our reliability.
All enquiries to be made to: Peter Shaw-Sadler UNION DEVELOPMENT COMPANY LIMITED, Mayfair 8888, or Write Box M.156, The Times, E.C.4.
