THE volume presented this year to the Surtees Society contains "The heraldic visitation of the county of York," made by Sir William Dugdale, then Norroy King of Arms, in the years 1665 and 1666. This valuable genealogical record is now for the first time printed entire from a copy in the handwriting of the late Dr. Raine, collated by the editor with Dugdale's original copy which has been for many years the property of Miss Curren of Eshton Hall, who has most kindly and liberally allowed the Society the use of it for this purpose.

Miss Curren's "noble" MS., as it has been justly designated by a high authority,* was stated in the proposals issued by a late accomplished genealogist † for publishing "Dugdale's Heraldic Visitation of Yorkshire with additions," to be the "only perfect copy out of the Heralds' College." It forms a large folio volume, consisting of nearly 300 leaves of paper, and containing the pedigrees of 472 families, a pen-
