H.P.C., London. BY Messrs. TATTERSALL, by PRIVATE CON-TRACT, the property of a Gentleman, an old established PACK of HARRIERS, well bred, consisting of 15 Couples of strong Bony Hounds.

Capital Freshold Inn and Posting House, the Crown, Great Chesterford, in the County of Essex. TO be SOLD, by PRIVATE CONTRACT (solely in consequence of the severe indisposition of the Proprietor), that old-established and incrative concern, the CROWN INN, Great Chesterford, most admirably situate on the Newmarket and Cambridge read, 43 miles from London, with superior and well-arranged stabling and coach houses, brewbouse, numerous outbuildings, farmyard, spacious innyard, excellent walled-in gar-dens, and extensive shrubbery in front; also an ornamental Cottage Resi-dence, recently erected in the flower-garden, communicating with the inn. The whole of these truly desirable premises are built in the most substantial manner, in perfect order, and replete with every convenience for conducting the extensive business in all its branches. The highly popular character of the house is too well known to need any comment. Suffice it to say, it is frequented by families of the first distinction, and has been in the very successful occupation of the proprietor and his family for nearly half a century.

Immediate possession will be given, and half the purchase-money may remain on mortgage. There are one hundred acres of land in a high state of cultivation in front of the house, which the purchaser may have on lease, if required.

For particulars apply (if by letter, post paid) to Mr. M. Nockolds, Land Agent, &c., Saffron Walden; or, Mr. Field, 2. Osnaburch-place, New-road, London; where a plan of the estate may be seen; and every information given by Mr. Tattersall, Hyde Park-corner, who has known the concern for 30 years.

ERITH, IN KENT.—To be LET, or the LEASE to be SOLD, a beautiful COTTAGE RESIDENCE, in a dry and healthy Situation, commanding a delightful View of the river Thames, replete with every convenience for a small family, and with Coach-house and Three-stall Stable. The whole is tastefully arranged, and in complete repair, with excellent Garden well stocked with the most choice Standard and Wall Fruit Trees.

To any family fond of retirement it would be difficult to select a more delight.

ful spot, particularly if aquatic amusements were desirable. May be viewed, and immediate possession had. For particulars address to B. B., post paid, No. 64, Seymour place, Bryanston square; and Mr. G. Wilding, Dartford, Kent,-N.B. Well supplied with soft and spring water. UNS AND PISTOLS .- REILLY, 316, High Hol-I born, near Chancery-lane, begs to inform Gentlemen that he has again completed his Stock, which will be found to comprise the best Assortment in London of Double and Single Fowling pieces, Double and Single Rifles, Double Guns, with one barrel rifled, and the other for shot. First-rate Duelling Pistols, Double and Single Holster Pistols, ditto Pocket Pistols, 4, 5, and 6 Barrelled Carriage Pistols, and every variety of articles incidental to the trade. He has now in Stock an extensive assortment of Second-hand Guns by the Mantons, Purdey, Forsyth, &c. &c. Warranted genuine, by reference to the makers, whose names are on them before payment. Yacht Guns, and every kind of Ordnance, on a reduced scale.

TO SPORTSMEN AND GUN-MAKERS .- The attention of Sportsmen is requested to the great improvement in ELEY'S PATENT WIRE CARTRIDGES since the last season. They are now warranted perfectly certain in their action, and those in Blue Cases will make all guns kill fifteen yards further than a loose charge, without at all lessening the chance of killing quite near. The Red and Green are for longer distances. Their other advantages are the following:—They keep the gun clean, a wadding being attached; they are loaded in half the usual time; lighter charges may be used.—Any gentleman may see them tried by applying at the Ware-house, No. 36, St. James's-street, Piccadilly. O OWNERS of HORSES .- The Necessity for Blistering a Morse's Broken Knees, however deeply out, is entirely Super-seded by HANDLEY'S ARABIAN OINTMENT. By its application so time is lost, the animal is not needlessly tertured, nor risk run of blemishing him. It instantly allays Inflammation, and performs so perfect and beautiful a Cure, that the most practised eye cannot discover the seat of hujury. In Cracks or Uleers of the Heels, Thrushes or Discased Fregs, Treads. Over reaching, Saddle or Harness Galls, Sitfasts, Fistula of the Withers, Grease, Cutting, and in Wounds from stakes, stubts, or thorns, it will be found infinitely superior to, and cheaper than any other application.—Sold in pots, at 28.6d. & 48.6d. each, with directions, wholesale by Barclay and Sons, Farringdon-street; and retail by Chandler, 76, Oxford-street; Johnson, Cornhill; Stirling, 86, Whitechapel; Ward, 79, Bishopsgate-street Within; Prout, Strand; Henderbourck, Middle-row, Holbern; and by all drugglets .- Ask for Handley's Arabian Ointment. ORSES.—ARMITT'S SPAVIN LINIMENT, LAMENESS in HORSES, the most safe, certain, and expeditious Remedy for Spavins, Curbs, Strains, Bruises, Windgalls, Pinched Shoulders, Poll Evil, &c. &c. Repeated trials having proved the superior efficacy of the Spavin Liniment in the Cure of the Diseases above specified, and moreover supported by the highest testimonials, the Proprietor confidently recommends it to public notice. In the stables of coach-proprietors, horse-dealers, and all persons having the management of studs, it will be found a most useful resource, as it is calculated speedily to remove every description of morbid enlargement.—Sold, wholesale and retail, by Wm. Satton and Co., No. 10, Bow Church yard, London, in bottles at 9s. and 5s. each, and by all respectable Medicine-venders in the kingdom.—N.B. Be sure to ask for Armitt's Spavin Liniment. Prepared only by T. B. Armitt, Chemist, Northampton. VALUABLE HORSE MEDICINE. BALLS, a mild and effectual remedy for all Coughs, Colds, Chronic Discases of the Lungs, and Organs of Respiration. For the above complaints, these Balls are the most sovereign remedy known, and one trial only will evince their utility.—Prepared only by W. HII.DITCH, Chemist, Denbigh.—Extract from The Chester Courant, of Feb. 9, 1836:—"We beg to call the attention of our readers interested in horses, to the valuable Cough Balls prepared by Mr. Hilditch, of Denbigh.—Numerous propagations that they are pared by Mr. Hilditch, of Denbigh. Numerous instances prove that they are the mildest and safest medicine in their operation that can be given to horses. All recent coughs are immediately subdued, and in Chronic Diseases and Thick Winds (a forerunner of broken wind), they give considerable relief, and a perseverance in their use will in a short time effect a perfect cure,"-London
