Text by Robin Hurt

Artwork by Alan James Robinson

Safari Press proudly announces Hunting the Big Five, an outstanding handmade letterpress book to be issued in a unique, limited edition of 376 copies—never to be printed again. This extraordinary book will contain the hunting narratives by world-renowned African professional hunter Robin Hurt on each of the African Big Five: elephant, lion, leopard, rhino, and buffalo. Robin Hurt, universally recognized as the preeminent professional hunter in Africa today, has guided clients to outstanding trophies in the most famous game fields of the Dark Continent. Alan James Robinson, wildlife artist, has been a designer and illustrator of letterpress books for over twenty years. The books from his award-winning press, Press of the Sea Turtle, have been eagerly sought by collectors the world over. His titles are in the collections of the Library of Congress, National Library of Australia, New York Public Library, Folger Shakespeare Library, and the Kadama Collection of Shakespearean Literature, Japan.

HUNTING THE BIG FIVE

Specifications for HUNTING THE BIG FIVE

Each book will be handmade, typeset by hand and monotype, with hand-printed etchings, wood engravings, and lithographs. The paper, handmade from rags, is 100% acid-free. The books will be printed letterpress under the painstaking attention of master printers. Every copper-plate etching by Alan James Robinson is hand drawn and printed by hand on fine French art paper. This is volume 32 in Safari Press's Classics in African Hunting Series. Two editions of this magnificent book will be issued:

The Deluxe Edition—limited to 350 numbered copies:

- * Large format, 11 by 14½ inches, 148pp, signed by author and artist.
- * One sepia printed etching of each member of the Big Five.
- * One black-and-white wood engraving of each of the Big Five.
- * A total of five lithograph maps in full color.
- * Twelve additional black-and-white pen-and-ink drawings depicting scenes from the text.
- * One-quarter leather binding with a map of Africa stamped in 22 karat gold foil leaf on the front board and 22 karat gold foil leaf lettering on the spine. The deluxe edition has a linen slipcase.

The Full Leather Edition—limited to 26 lettered copies—is SOLD OUT!
