NOW EXHIBITING IN THE
 CIRCUS ROYAL,

Wombwell's Royal National Menagerie.

MR. GEO. WOMBWELL, most respectfully begs to intimate to the Nobility, Gentry, the inhabitants of the city of Bath and its environs, that after a lapse of some years, he has taken this opportunity of offering his unequalled MENAGERIE to their inspection, and begs to assure them that there never has been seen travelling, or in any Zoological Establishment in Europe, so rare and valuable a Collection of Animated Nature as his ample Menagerie now affords; and he trusts to receive on this occasion a share of their support. Since the last visit, several rare and valuable additions have been made to the Menagerie, which renders it superior to any other Establishment in Europe. The Collection contains that rare and valuable animal the Great One-horned RHINOCEROS, or Unicorn of Scripture; it was purchased by Mr. Wombwell at immense expense, in May last, and added to this Menagerie; it is the only one that has been seen in any Travelling Menagerie for the last 18 years. Two ELEPHANTS, Male and Female; the Male is the most sagacious animal ever seen. A great number of LIONS and LIONESSES. A most beautiful Pair of Royal BENGAL TIGERS, the male the largest ever hunted in England. PANTHERS, LEOPARDS, CHITTAI, or Hunting Tigers; and a Pair of those famed and singular animals the BLACK TIGERS of South America, a very fine SENEGAL LEOPARDESS and her young now only two months old. A most beautiful young Male LION, and a TIGRESS, dwelling in one den together, the keepers enter the den with them, and at his command they leap through hoops, over bars, sit up, lie down, &c. &c., which must be considered a very pleasing and interesting sight. A Pair of beautiful ZEBRAS, male and female, the Wild Ass of Scripture. The NIL-GHAU, but lately added to the Menagerie. A very fine Pair BEAR just arrived from the Polar Regions. The real URSINE SLOTH. A fine assortment of BIRDS, from the Ostrich or Emu, to the smallest kinds. A very fine Collection of SERPENTS and CROCODILES, &c. The Menagerie is in perfect order and cleanliness; good fires kept to render the place agreeable; and every attention paid to visitors.
