

G. WOMBWELL

BEGS leave to inform the Nobility and Inhabitants of YARMOUTH, that his immense Collection of WILD BEASTS, not to be equalled in the World. will be exhibited in that Town on FRIDAY, January 29, and following Days, (Sunday excepted) till SATURDAY the 6th of February.

G. W. likewise wishes to acquaint the Inhabitants of LYNN, that during the Mart they will have an opportunity of viewing his grand MENAGERIE, indisputably the most rich and complete Collection of living Animals, worthy the inspection of all Amateurs, Connoisseurs, and the Public in general, viewing at one glance every kind of extraordinary, rare, and valuable Quadruped and Bird that ever crossed the Ocean, such as have always been considered leading objects of exhibition, exclusively of several Animals, entirely new to this country.—The rare and wonderful Animal,

THE ONE-HORNED RHINOCEROS, OR REAL UNICORN OF SCRIPTURE,

THE ONLY ONE LIVING IN EUROPE :

That formerly exhibited at Exeter Change, by the late Polito, died at Frankfort. When full grown it weighs 6 Tons.

THE MOST SINGULAR ANIMAL.

THE RIVER COW.

Which Animal has frequently been taken for the HIPPOPOTAMUS ;

A VERY SINGULAR AMPHIBIOUS ANIMAL FROM SOUTH AMERICA,

Not yet described by our great Naturalists ;

TWO BEAUTIFUL ZEBRAS, MALE & FEMALE ;

EIGHT LIONS,

Among which are a Lion and Lioness, five years old, with a full flowing mane. These are the first Lions that ever produced young in this country, except the one in the Tower, which produced one Female in the year 1794 : in the adjoining Den is their offspring, a young Lion and Lioness, two years and a half old, and a remarkably fine young Cub, these Animals are perfectly harmless, not having the least symptoms of their natural ferocity.

Three beautiful Silver Lions, from South America.

THE ROYAL BENGAL BLACK-STRIPED TYGER :

This Animal in size and strength is inferior to none of the ferocious or carnivorous kind of Animals, and for beauty of colour and shape exceeds the whole of that tremendous class.

A STUPENDOUS MALE ELEPHANT,

WITH FINE IVORY TUSK.

THE ALPACCA, or CAMEL OF PERU ;

Beautiful Spotted LEOPARD and LEOPARDESS ;

NOBLE MALE PANTHER ;

THE STRIPED AND SPOTTED HYÆNAS ;

The JACKALL, or LION'S PROVIDER ;

THE OCELOT, or TYGER IN MINIATURE ;

A PAIR OF RACOONS ;

The CIVET, or MUSK CATS, from AFRICA ;

PAIR OF COATI MONDIS, OR ANT EATERS ;

A BEAUTIFUL ANTELOPE :

THE PORCUPINE, FROM AFRICA :

A PAIR OF KANGAROOS ; THE URSINE SLOTH ;

The MOCUSES, Natives of Madagascar ;

A variety of Monkeys of different Species ; Scarlet, Blue, and Buff Macaws ; Lories & Loricates ;

China, Gold, and Silver Pheasants, of the most splendid Plumage ;

With a great variety of smaller Animals and Birds ; in short, the whole of the Collection is in such fine order, cleanliness, and condition, that the spectators are struck with astonishment.

Admittance—Ladies and Gentlemen 2s. each ; Others 1s. Feeding Time, Nine o'clock, 2s. 6d.

Most Money given for all kinds of Foreign Animals and Birds alive at the Menagerie.

This Collection far exceeds any thing that human imagination can suggest, surpassing even Exeter

Change, and the Tower of London.

LATELY ADDED TO THE MENAGERIE,

TWO SERPENTS, of an immense Size ;

The ANACONDA, or BOA CONSTRICTOR, measuring 18 Feet in Length.

They are perfectly harmless, and Feed on Live Rabbits once a week.
