

Lady Curzon's India

LETTERS OF A VICEREINE

Edited by John Bradley
with a foreword by Nigel Nicolson

BEAUFORT BOOKS
Publishers
New York

Illustrations

Endpapers: 'The Indian Empire and Surrounding Countries' (detail), from the Imperial Gazetteer of India, 1909 (British Library)

Government House, Calcutta

Simla, the Viceregal Lodge (British Library)

The Curzons en route to Sanchi

Akbar's tomb, Sikandra

The tomb of Itimad-ud-Daula

Viceregal visit to Lucknow (British Library)

Lady Curzon on a rhinoceros, Kashmir

The Curzons on the Viceregal launch, Calcutta

Lord Curzon with Cynthia and Irene

'Ringing the tiger'

Tiger-hunt in Hyderabad (British Library)

Viceregal visit to Hyderabad (British Library)

Lady Curzon at the Delhi Durbar

Alexandra at Simla

The Curzons' final departure from India

Unless otherwise indicated, the illustrations are reproduced by kind permission of Lady Alexandra Metcalfe

Lady Curzon on a rhinoceros, Kashmir, 1900.

Lord and Lady Curzon with Cynthia and Irene on the Viceregal launch, Calcutta, January 1901.

ABOVE: 'Ringing the tiger'
(letter of 29 March 1901).

LEFT: The Hyderabad tiger
hunt at which the old shikar was killed, April 1902 (see
Lady Curzon's Hyderabad
Journal).