

ascertain a knowledge of the sensations which accompany the operation of hanging.

The Neponset at Boston from Calcutta, has brought an elephant and a rhinoceros, both living. The latter is small, but the elephant is very large, although he is supposed to have lost 1000 pounds of flesh on the passage. The sustenance of the two on the voyage occupied forty tons measurement of the vessel.

Jurors.—Messrs. Editors—A very erroneous impression appears to exist as regards the attendance of jurors
