

such a craving for exciting food. But we do not believe that it has this unhealthy appetite. We do not believe that the inmates of our drawing rooms are so furiously political as to desire works of this character, that literary coteries are anxious to engage in fierce and bitter discussions.—N. Y. Times.

---

Rhinoceros.—The ship Allegheny, from London, has brought to this city a large Rhinoceros, imported by S. Comly, Esq.—Phil. Sent.