

expense, and in a most spirited manner, and the proprietor well deserves the patronage of the public.

EDMONDS' MENAGERIE.—On reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that Mr. Edmonds, the successor of Mr. Wombwell, the late exhibitor of wild beasts, intends visiting this city on Thursday next. Amongst the rare and wonderful animals which will be exhibited to the notice of the public are a splendid pair of black tigers; the largest one-horned rhinoceros in England; a gigantic giraffe; together with two unequalled performing elephants; and a prong-horned licama. A splendid brass band accompanies the exhibition. The collection has twice had the honour of appearing before the Court at Windsor Castle.

THE MILITIA.—The ordinary routine of drilling, consisting of platoon and other exercises, has characterised the proceedings of the week, and eleven recruits have been added to the number already enrolled—making the regiment at the present moment 608 strong, irrespective
