IMAGE AND LIKENESS
OF GOD.

THE SIXTH DAY.

GENESIS i. 26.

O wondrous Man ! more wondrous still
Is that great power that form'd thy will :
Great are thy works Almighty Lord !
In man display'd, by man ador'd ;
Thou formedst his will, and madest him free ;
To love and serve and worship thee.
Powerful to stand, or free to fall,
Thou formedst the mind, the will, the soul,
His glorious crown of liberty,
Displays his power and dignity ;
A tyrant's will he cannot own,
Nor at his feet, lay down his crown.
