

William—as "Scarecrow." See Page 11.

The Daily Mirror

NET SALE NEARLY TWICE THAT OF ANY OTHER DAILY PICTURE NEWSPAPER

William turns up again in a new

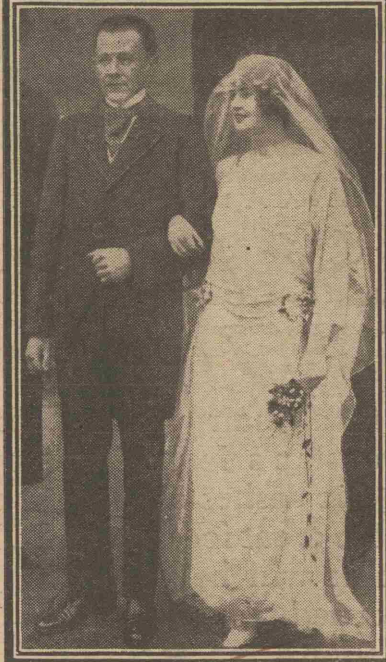

—ro'e on the Pip and Squeak page.

LEVEE AT ST. JAMES' PALACE

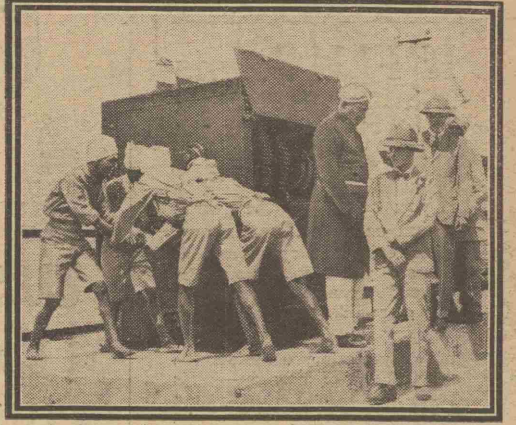

Left, Sir Charles and Lady Walker; right, Sir Beithom Whitehead arriving with Mr. Whitehead.

WED AT WESTMINSTER

Lieutenant-Colonel F. Pepys Cockerell, O.B.E., M.C., and his bride, Felicia Louise Mary, daughter of the late Mr. James Grahame Stewart and Mrs. Stewart, of Kensington-square, after their wedding at St. Margaret's, Westminster, yesterday.

THE PRINCE'S INDIAN TOUR

The Prince standing beside one of sluce-controlling boxes during his visit to the Cauvery Dam, Mysore.

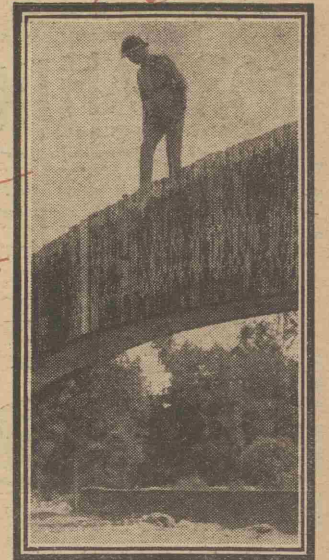

The Minister for Venezuela, on left, in conversation with the Minister for Panama.

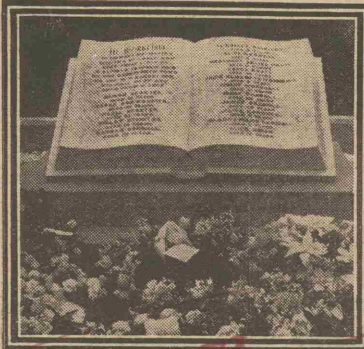

The Hon. Rachel Hayes Fisher, daughter of the late Lord Downham, and the Lady Downham, whose marriage to —Major T. M. Creighton, second son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Creighton, of Oakmoth, Nova Scotia, takes place on Saturday.

On a brick span over a water course near the Fort of Shringapatam.

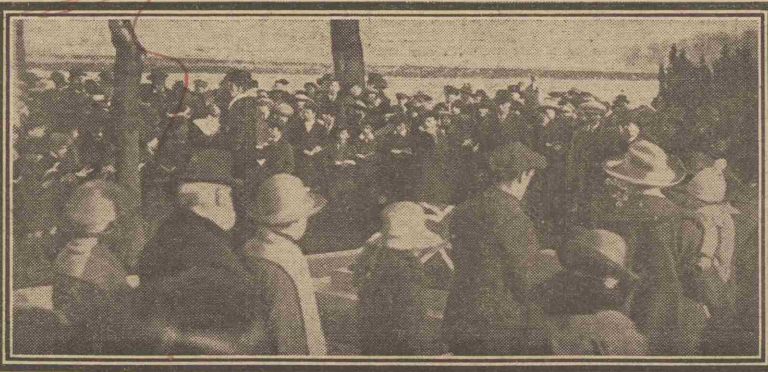

The memorial, inscribed with the names of the sixteen victims of the raid.

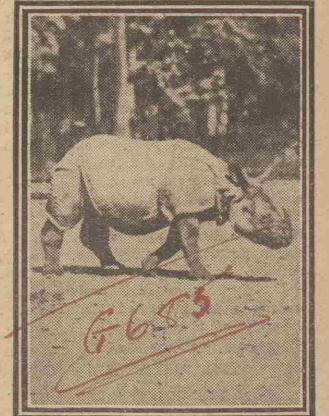

SOCIETY ON THE STAGE.—Miss Marjorie Clarke-Jervoise, with Miss Julia Mansel, who organised a special matinee, in which many society ladies took part, at the Aldwych Theatre yesterday.

Captain F. E. Guest, on left, Secretary of State for Air, and Sir Laming Worthington-Evans, Minister for War, attending the levee yesterday. (Daily Mirror photographs.)

AIR RAID ECHO.—The scene at the unveiling at Goole of a memorial to those who lost their lives by a German Zeppelin raid on the town in August, 1918.

A fine Indian rhinoceros from Nepal which has been added to the collection of wild animals and birds given to the Prince by Indian rulers. The collection will be housed in the Zoo.