

... at the very reverse, but chaque un à son goût.

The shikar party of H. H. the Maharajah of Dur-bhangha came to an end on the last day of last month, the sportsmen engaged in it accounting for 1,740 head of game, amongst which were 7 tigers, 2 rhinoceri, 1 leopard, 47 buffaloes, 285 pig, and 488 deer—a not insignificant bag.

On Thursday last the fifth tent-pegging match, between the 6th Bengal Cavalry and the Calcutta Mounted Rifles, took place, when the latter succeeded in defeating the former by 55 to 51—a victory which reflects the greatest possible credit upon the victors, and one which I pointed out in my last letter they had made up their minds to achieve before long. Messrs. Dring and Pinkerton for the Volunteers, and they only, both succeeded in making the highest possible score.

I hear that the skirmishing over fences of the