

Talukdar: What job did you have before this?

Tisno: I was staff of Ujung Kulon National Park as forest guard. It is honor to me to join with RPU and be head of Unit.

Talukdar: What is the most difficult part of your job?

Tisno: The most difficult part of job is how to handle and solve the problem with local people inside the forest. Sometimes we need to protect the forest from encroacher but sometimes we need to understand they need a land for their life.

Talukdar: What is the most rewarding part of your job?

Tisno: To protect Javan rhino, the most critically endangered species around the world.

Talukdar: How does your family feel about your work?

Tisno: They are very support and they understood if I am far away from them 20 days per month.

Talukdar: What do your friends and neighbors think about your job?

Tisno: They are very appreciated because I work to protect Javan rhino and they know that Javan rhino is symbol of Banten Province.

Talukdar: What would you like to say to the people who support the RPU program?

Tisno: First I would like to say thank you so much to IRF as the major donor for rhino conservation in Indonesia and please always support us and understand what we have done in the field.
