Looking into the Abyss is an eclectic collection of short stories, brought to you by eleven authors from various areas of the world. These authors have joined together to help raise awareness and encourage support of the most critical wildlife protection and conservation efforts, like the ongoing fight against the illegal poaching of Rhinoceros horn.

By owning a copy of Looking into the Abyss are be helping to spread the word about these magnificent creatures and helping to ensure the Rhinoceros continue to walk the earth for future generations.

Not only will Looking into the Abyss give you an array of wonderful stories to enjoy, but it also lends the satisfaction that you are helping the world and its wildlife survive.

Not many other books can do all that!
