

= Some Familiar Friends at

Stereoscopic Co.

FROM THE PARROT-HOUSE.
A macaw with gorgeous plumage of orange and green.

L. Temple

THE CRAB-EATING RACOON.
A native of South America, presented to the Society in 1901.

L. Temple

FROM THE ROCKIES.
A grizzly bear, presented by E. S. Cameron, Esq., F.Z.S.

L. Temple

THE SPOTTED HYENA.
Brought from Gambia, and presented by Captain Sir G. C. Denton, K.C.M.G., F.Z.S., in 1902.

Stereoscopic Co.

THE POLAR BEAR.
Presented by Arnold Pike, Esq., in 1895, and brought from Spitzbergen.

A FAMILY

"Mikey," the chimpanzee, regarded by many visitors as a
by the Soc

the Zoological Gardens. =

Stereoscopic Co.

THE CHILDREN'S DELIGHT.

"Punch," the Russian brown bear, who is always hungry.

L. Temple.

THE GREAT KANGAROO.

Presented to the Society on May 30, 1900.

L. Temple.

AN EAGLE.

These birds have very keen sight and great wing power.

L. Temple.

FACE.
Living proof of the Darwinian theory. He was purchased Stereoscopic Co.

"MINNIE."

This splendid tigress was presented by the Maharana of Oodeypore in 1892.

Stereoscopic Co.

THE INDIAN RHINOCEROS.

"Tom," presented by H. H. Maharajah of Cooch Behar in 1886.

Original from UNIVERSITY OF IOWA