THE PRINCE WITH THE MAHARAJAH

IN THE GURKHA LAND OF NEPAL

The Prince received a splendid greeting on his arrival at Nepal, where he spent a week tiger and rhinoceros shooting. A triumphal arch was erected at the frontier, and through this the Prince passed. The gateway bore the inscription, "Hearty Welcome to Britain's Sporting Prince," and was adorned with rare and valuable skins. On arrival the Maharajah of Nepal presented an oil painting of himself to the Prince as a memento of the visit. Rice and petals were scattered on the Prince's path
