

Lord and Lady Catto at Home in Surrey

The New Governor of the Bank of England

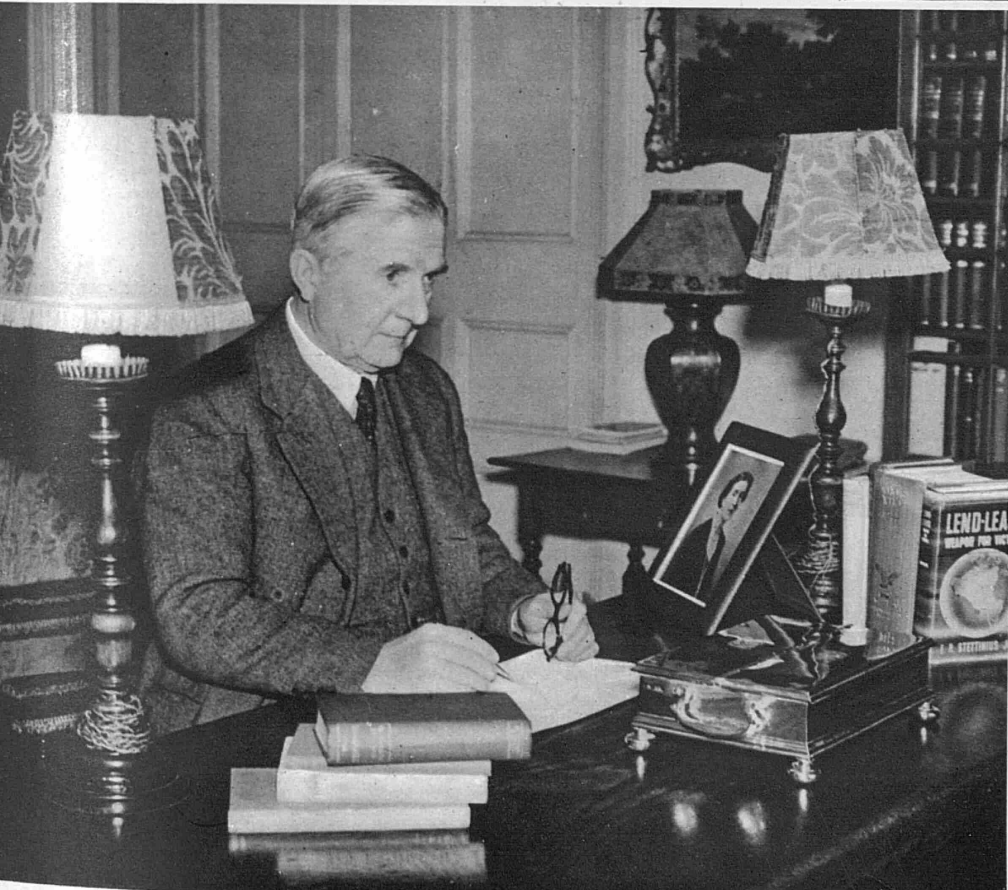

Lord Catto Succeeds Mr. Montagu Norman

Following Mr. Montagu Norman's decision to retire from the Governorship of the Bank of England, which he has held continuously for twenty-four years, Lord Catto of Cairncatto has been elected to fill this important post. Lord Catto, a former Chairman of Andrew Yule and Co., of Calcutta, and holder of many important directorships, resigned from all his businesses and directorships in 1940, on accepting the specially created unpaid war position of Financial Advisor to the Treasury, from which post he has now been released by the Chancellor of the Exchequer in order to take up his new duties. The new Governor is an Aberdeenshire man, and married Miss Gladys Forbes Gordon, of Elgin. They have one son and three daughters

THE TATLER
AND BYSTANDER
APRIL 26, 1944

109

Lord Catto at Work in His Study

Lady Catto's portrait hangs over the mantel-piece in one of the rooms at Holmdale, St. Mary's, Surrey, the Cattos' country house

The rhinoceros whose head decorates the hall was shot by Lord Catto in Nepal