

Bombay Gazette - Wednesday 19 July 1865

Colonel Sarel

Lieut.-General Henry Andrew Sarel CB (1823–1887) was a British Army officer who became Lieutenant Governor of Guernsey.

See Sarel 1887

Bombay Gazette Wednesday 19 July 1865, p. 5

Bombay Gazette - Wednesday 19 July 1865

Image © THE BRITISH LIBRARY BOARD. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.

< Page 5 of 8 >

it is Dr. Kelly.

THE Pioneer :—We have had placed at our disposal a rather interesting letter, addressed by Colonel Sarel, late Military Secretary to the Commander-in-Chief, to a Brother Officer in these Provinces. Colonel Sarel has been on a shooting expedition through the Bhootan Dooars, finding plenty of game, and fully compensated, as we should suppose, for having met with no tiger, by knocking over no less than eight rhinoceros, the horns of which must, of themselves, form a splendid trophy for any sportsman. We hope, for the sake of the many friends of this frank, genial and manly Officer, that the sad state of health, when the Pilot left the last homeward-bound Steamer from Calcutta at Sea, may bode no obstacle to his long enjoyment in England of the contemplation of his many other tokens of successful venery in India. After having passed the months of March, April, May, and part of June, among the Bhootan Dooars, remaining in perfect health throughout, he

Cameron, and William Hor brought up by Mr. Constable being concerned in committ the Esplanade, were yester Mr. Barton at the Fort P prosecutor was forthcomin

YESTERDAY afternoon, ju the Fort Police Court, a meron applied to the Chi tance. He said that he had charged by his Worship fro locked up for several days, cerned in a highway robbe declared that he was on bo at the time the alleged Worship told the applicant ion to relieve him, as the were exhausted.

Where am I?
A NATIVE boy employe