

A Big Game Bag in Central Africa

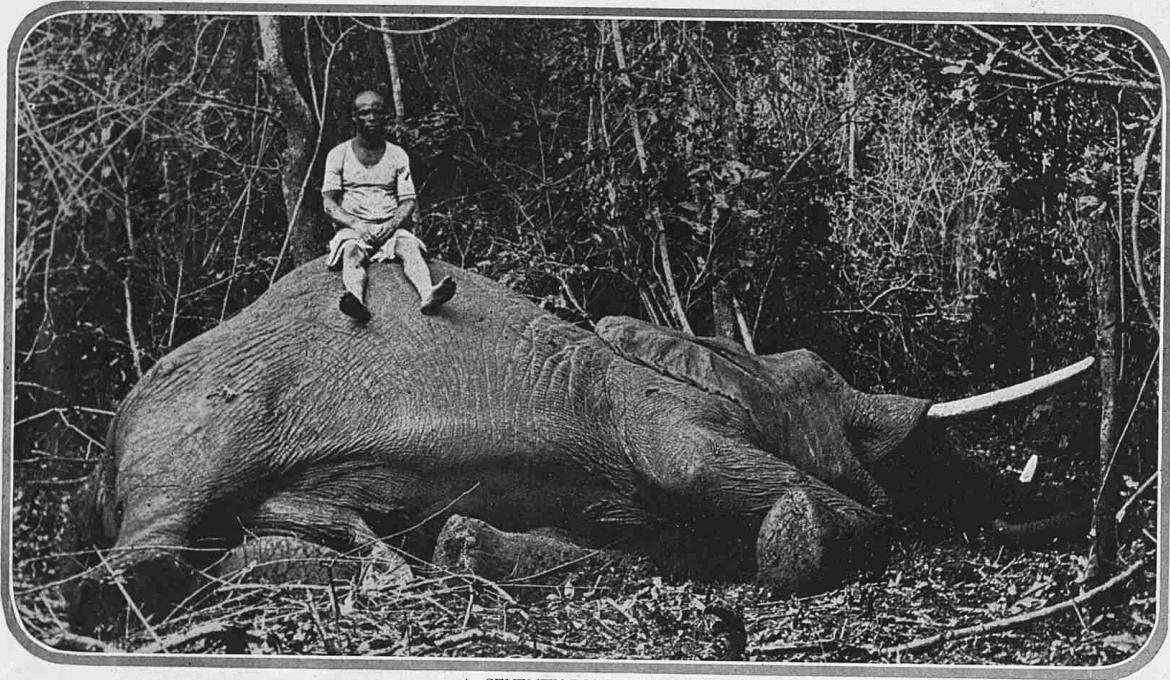

SPORT ON THE BORDERS OF LAKE NYASA

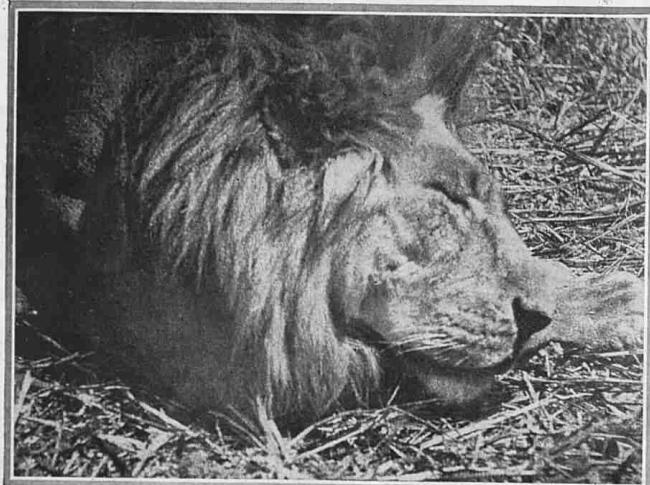

WITH TUSKS OF EIGHTY-FIVE POUNDS
The head of a big elephant, shot at Fort Maguire.

A FINE HIPPO HEAD
The hippopotamus was shot at Monkey Bay, on Lake Nyasa.

A SEVENTY-POUND TUSKER
Brought down with a .600 double-barrelled elephant gun at Fort Maguire, Lake Nyasa.

MAJESTIC TO THE END
This lion was tracked after much difficulty at Liwonde, and shot at a range of only 40 yards with a .350 rifle.

THE MIGHTY FALLEN
This fine specimen of a rhinoceros was shot at Mtengula during a six months' trip from Beira to Nkata Bay, through Blantyre and the Nyasaland lakes.