

Homeward Mail from India, China and the East - Saturday 19 April 1902

Image © THE BRITISH LIBRARY BOARD. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.

PERSONAL.

THE Grand Duke Boris, cousin of the Czar of Russia, left Madras on Monday evening (March 31) on a visit to Bombay and Northern India.

The Maharaja of Cooch Behar's shooting party continued to have good sport in the Terai. The total bag up to March 25 was six tigers, six rhinos, 13 buffaloes, two bisons, two bears, and six stags.

Mr. A. Levanthorpe, executive engineer from the Shan States, relieves Mr. Stanley as Under-Secretary of the Public Works Department, Burma, when the latter proceeds on furlough shortly.

The Pioneer says :—When Mr. H. F. Evans, senior member of the Board of Revenue in the United Provinces, goes on leave on April 10, Mr. John Hooper officiates, and Mr. Percy Gray officiates for Mr.