

Image © THE BRITISH LIBRARY BOARD. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.

HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF Cooch Behar's shooting party bagged a buffalo, a fine boar, a wild dog, which is a great rarity in those parts of the country, some deer, peacock, and birds of sorts. The remainder of the herd of buffalo, which was put up by his Highness, quite unexpectedly got away, his Highness making a beautiful shot at the last one, which unluckily was a cow. Next day they had grand sport, bagging a magnificent tiger, ten feet and two-and-a-half inches long, then a fine bull buffa'o whose horn was nine feet and eight-and-a-half inches long. They then found rhino, and a fine bull was hard hit by Major Gordon, but escaped in a sea of grass. The whole party were delighted with the day, and were twelve hours in the howdah.

the c
neces
variet
that i
by tr
an e
be re
young
friend
with c
secur
S. Ki
that t
impro
repair
£20,0
value
it orig
in clu