

VICEROY'S SHOOTING TRIP.

Colonel Brooke Injured.

LALMONITHAL, February 22.

The Viceroy's shooting party broke up to-day and His Excellency commenced his return journey to Calcutta, from Serampetra station at 10-48 this morning.

Police carrying flaming torches were stationed this evening every hundred yards along the route to Sealdah from Golakganj, the junction of the new Dhubri-Gauhati extension, where the engine was changed.

The Viceroy's train stayed an hour at Gitaldiaha, where dinner was served, and the Maharaja of Cooch Behar, who had accompanied the party, left them for his palace.

Early tea will be served at Sara Ghat and a special steamer will convey the party to Damukdia, Calcutta being reached according to the schedule at 12-50 to-morrow morning.
