

Hornsea lifeboat, as seen in our picture, is being launched for practice. The crew is partly made up of Bridlington boatmen. (West Park.)

The

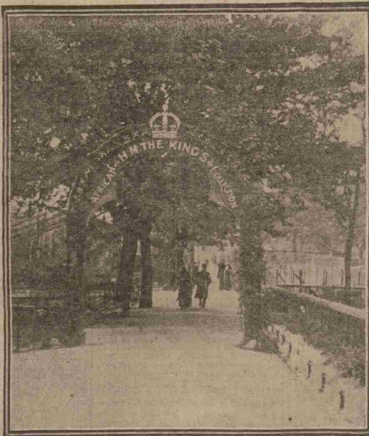

This photograph, reproduced from a film used at Picture House, Briggate, Leeds, was taken close to the chief crater of Mount Etna during the recent eruption.

John Willis, the goose which followed its owner about Bridlington dead. Our photograph shows the bird and its owner on the Pier.

THE KING'S COLLECTION OF ANIMALS AT THE ZOO.

"Billy," the infant African rhinoceros, who is the favourite of the collection. (Topical.)

A general view of the section of the Zoo allotted to His Majesty's collection. (Topical.)

A fine specimen of a young African lion, which attracts much attention. (Topical.)