

LIVERPOOL
ZOOLOGICAL GARDENS.

STRANGERS and Visitors in Liverpool, and the Inhabitants generally, are respectfully informed, that these Gardens are now open daily, from Seven in the morning till dusk.

This Establishment is the first of the kind formed in this kingdom, except the London Gardens, and combines unprecedented attractions for the Naturalist, the Botanist, and the general Visitor, and is situated within half-an-hour's walk of the Exchange. It extends over about ten acres of ground tastefully laid out in Walks, Lawns, and Shrubberies, and is planted with Forest Trees, Shrubs, and Flowers of all descriptions.

Interspersed through the Gardens are—

THE GRAND MENAGERIE,

A large Stable and Paddock, occupied by

THE RHINOCEROS;

A MALE AND FEMALE ELEPHANT.

Two other Stables occupied by a choice variety of QUADRUPEDS.

AN ELEGANT AVIARY,

With a splendid COLLECTION of SMALL BIRDS.

An AIRIE, for EAGLES, CONDORS, VULTURES, and other Birds of Prey.
